

During eLearning and Video Communication Five Warning Signs that a Child Needs your Help

Physical Appearance

Check for:

Signs of bruises, marks, injuries, hygiene, attire

Environment

Check for:

Signs of violence, drugs & alcohol, family dysfunction

Engagement

Check for:

Changes in participation, interactions, communication

Behavior & Affect

Check for:

Change in mood or presentation, distress, outcries of abuse

Supervision

Check for:

Access to a responsible adult & their level of involvement

If You Suspect Abuse or Neglect call the Department of Children and Families Child-at-Risk Hotline at (800) 792-5200.
For Immediate Concerns, Dial 911