About Massachusetts Children's Alliance

Massachusetts Children's Alliance (MACA) drives the innovative work to help child abuse victims get the best care possible. We do that by promoting interventions that work, delivering effective educational programming, galvanizing legislative support, and mobilizing communities to have tough, but necessary, conversations about child abuse.

MACA provides critical training and assistance to our programs and those professionals working with Children's Advocacy Centers (CACs) to ensure that each one has the capacity to be nationally accredited and adequately respond to their community's needs. We serve as the voice of sexually abused children at the State House and on Capitol Hill, and we are committed to forging public/private partnerships to guarantee the fiscal health and sustainability of our work.

You'll be delighted to see the programmatic advancements we have made in the last year as well as the progress being made in our two statewide projects. To view our latest Annual Report, please click here.

About the Conference

MACA is in the final planning stages for our 15th Annual Statewide Conference, entitled Healing, Hope, and Justice: An Advanced Conversation. The conference will be held in-person on May 8th, 2025, at the Sheraton in Framingham, Massachusetts. We expect that this year's conference will attract over 300 attendees statewide and include the following: law enforcement officers (state and local), victim witness advocates, prosecutors, child forensic interviewers, mental health and medical providers, care and protection workers, probation, and CAC staff.

Why partner with us?

Broad and Engaged Audience – The conference attracted 300 professionals from across Massachusetts and the region, including law enforcement, prosecutors, victim advocates, forensic interviewers, medical professionals, and mental health providers—offering sponsors the opportunity to reach a diverse and highly engaged audience.

High Satisfaction and Impact – 95% of attendees rated the conference as meeting or exceeding expectations, and 92% agreed that the content would improve their work performance—demonstrating the event's value in professional development.

Growing Sponsorship Success – Sponsorship revenue increased by 70% from the previous year, showing strong corporate and organizational support for MACA's mission and the increasing visibility of sponsors.

Statewide Reach Across Multiple Sectors – Attendees represented all 12 CACs in Massachusetts, along with professionals from care and protection, law enforcement, and the mental health and medical fields, allowing sponsors to align with a broad coalition of child protection professionals.

Strong Brand Visibility and Networking – Sponsors gain exposure to decision-makers and frontline professionals through branding on conference materials, networking opportunities, and recognition in a highly regarded professional forum.

Attendee Testimonials

"I have been coming to the conference for years, and the workshops get better and better every year. The three workshops I attended were amazing."

"This was my first time attending MACA, and I really enjoyed the conference. The content offered had a great variety, and I especially enjoyed the presentation by Stephanie Block."

By partnering with MACA, you're not just supporting a conference – you're investing in a safer future for Massachusetts children. Our attendees are actively seeking resources, technologies, and services that help them better serve vulnerable children.

Our Commitment to Partners

When you partner with MACA, we commit to:

1. Regular communication before, during, and after the conference
2. Customized support to help you achieve your specific goals
3. Post-event reporting with detailed metrics on your partnership impact
4. Photos and documentation of your brand presence for your own records

Next Steps

This proposal is a starting point for our conversation. We'd welcome the opportunity to discuss your specific goals and craft a custom partnership that delivers value to your organization while supporting our mission.
